TORONTO, Jan. 21, 2019 – Premium shopping destination, Square One announces local merchants and eateries for its best-in-class food concept The Food District, opening within the West Expansion development on April 1, 2019. The innovative space is an authentic experience for foodie tourists and locals alike and will feature local, handmade, and high-quality foods such as mouth-watering sultry pies from The Pie Commission, authentic Italian pasta from Dal Moro's Pasta, and gourmet chips from Craft Chippery.

The Food District will span over 40,000 sq. ft. and provide guests a space to meet, explore, and share the love of food through take-home specialty items. The heart, The District Kitchen, will be an interactive demonstration space housing cooking classes, dinner parties, corporate and other special events.

“Square One has been a key part of the Mississauga community for over 45 years and the Centre has grown with the city; continuously evolving to provide an innovative destination to explore fashion, food, lifestyle and entertainment,” says Square One director and general manager Greg Taylor. “We are thrilled to continue to invest in the area and the prosperity of its residents, while also creating over 250 job opportunities with this addition. The Food District will house gourmet artisans in a space where guests can enjoy and share their food experiences.”

Square One welcomes the following merchants to The Food District:
